Letter From Our CEO

*Dear Students,
Welcome to My Global World Education Group. As CEO, I am thrilled to introduce you to the innovative FlexiEduCare concept, which I believe will transform the way you experience education.*

Mr. Martin Nielsen
Founder & CEO

In my view, earning a degree should go beyond traditional theory and limited practical elements. That's why I developed the FlexiEduCare concept—to address your personal development needs and ensure you acquire the skills necessary for a successful future career.

My Global World Education Group comprises a diverse network of schools and institutions worldwide, unified by a shared vision and ownership.

The FlexiEduCare concept, which I crafted, embodies this vision. FlexiEduCare stands for securing future work skills tailored to each individual's unique needs (Flexibility), a harmonious blend of essential educational elements (Education), and providing comprehensive support for each individual throughout their entire educational journey (Care).

Whether you are looking to advance your career, start a new business, or gain practical experience in top-tier destinations such as Switzerland, Malaysia, Denmark, USA, and Thailand, I am here to support you every step of the way.

Join me at My Global World Education Group, where flexibility meets education and care, and let's build the future you deserve together.

Membership, Certification & Accreditation

International Business School of Scandinavia collaborates with numerous esteemed accreditation bodies worldwide. We have secured prestigious memberships and accreditations, ensuring that our students receive a high-quality, internationally recognized education.

Ensuring Quality Education

Accreditation is a mark of quality, showing that a private institution meets high standards in education. When a school is accredited, it means that its programs, faculty, and facilities have been thoroughly evaluated by an independent accrediting body. This process ensures that students receive a high-quality education that is recognized and respected.

Accreditation by recognized accrediting bodies enhances the global reputation of an institution. This is especially important for students who plan to work or study internationally. An accredited degree is more likely to be recognized and respected around the world, opening up global opportunities for graduates.
